EDUCATION

Graduate:
University of Miami, J.D.
Undergraduate:
University of Central Florida, BS in Psychology

Austin grew up in Niceville, Florida, an area of Okaloosa County known for its beaches and Southern hospitality.

After graduating from the University of Miami School of Law, Austin worked in support staff roles at law firms gaining practical experience while studying for the bar exam. He started his career as a public defender. Since joining Vernis & Bowling, Austin handles primarily construction and construction defect litigation.

He also has great interest in serving the community and enjoys taking on charitable work. In the past, Austin has served as a Guardian ad Litem Volunteer and currently volunteers at food distribution banks.

Austin enjoys getting out and enjoying nature, learning chess, watching college football – especially the Miami Hurricanes, and spending time with friends.
