EDUCATION

Graduate:

Florida International University College of Law, Juris Doctor

Undergraduate:

Florida State University, Bachelor of Science in Political Science

Honors: magna cum laude

Christopher Sabater earned a Bachelor of Science, magna cum laude, in Political Science from Florida State University in 2012. He also earned a minor in Business and a certificate in Markets and Institutions (Economics). He went on to earn his Juris Doctor from Florida International University College of Law in 2015.

He began his legal career representing homeowners with their insurance claims at a First Party Property Plaintiff's firm. Subsequently, he joined a First and Third Party Property Insurance Defense Firm defending insurance carriers with their residential and commercial property claims.

Christopher has successfully argued motions for summary judgment, dismissals with prejudice, and special set evidentiary hearings, with favorable outcomes for insurance defense clients.

Christopher is dedicated to understanding the complexities and application of First Property Law. He works diligently to help his clients navigate through the intricacies of each case. By focusing on the early recognition and mitigation of legal flashpoints, Christopher provides his clients with the most cost-effective and successful management plan to evaluate how they would like to proceed with their case.
