Robert Swanson attended the University of Central Florida, where he graduated with Bachelor of Science degrees in Health Care Administration and Legal Studies. At UCF Robert was active in Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and the Order of Omega honor fraternity. Robert received his Juris Doctorate degree cum laude from Stetson University College of Law. While in law school, Robert was active in the Health Law Society and was also a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Prior to his employment at Vernis & Bowling, Robert has practiced almost exclusively insurance defense. He was most recently practicing for the largest defense firm in Florida, representing carriers in bodily injury litigation, trucking litigation, premises liability and homeowners' insurance claims. At Vernis & Bowling, Robert focuses his practice on bodily injury, premises liability and first property insurance claims.

Robert litigates his cases as efficiently as possible, always being mindful of his clients' time and resources. His favorite part of practicing law is alleviating his clients concerns and securing a favorable outcome, either through negotiation, mediation, or trial.

Robert is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell and is admitted to all state of Florida courts and the U.S. Middle District of Florida. In his free time, Robert enjoys traveling with his wife and children and is huge fan of UCF athletics and the Tampa Bay Lightning.
