Phillip Jones joined Vernis & Bowling in 2016. Prior to joining the firm, Phillip attended Stetson University College of Law where he earned his Juris Doctorate with Honors. Since joining Vernis & Bowling, Phillip has represented Insurance Companies in thousands of first party disputes in the areas of Personal Injury Protection (PIP) and First Party Property claims. Phillip has also represented clients on hundreds of cases in the areas of construction defect, bodily injury/uninsured motorist claims, and premises liability. Phillip is admitted to practice in the State of Florida.

Vernis & Bowling takes pride in offering cost effective, yet aggressive litigation strategies. Over the years, Phillip has obtained tremendous results for his clients through his unique approach to first party claims, which provides clients with low-cost representation without sacrificing the quality of the same. Phillip has also instructed several continuing education courses for Insurance Companies and Adjusters.

When Phillip is not vigorously advocating for his clients, he enjoys fishing, Tampa Bay sports, and playing music.
