Ralph Mabie is a native of South Florida and a graduate of the University of Florida Law School. He has practiced law in Palm Beach County for over 30 years, focusing on Family Law and Estate Planning & Probate. He enjoys the highest rating for competence and professionalism which is awarded by Martindale-Hubbell peer review.

Ralph has participated in a number of community organizations including the American Heart Association and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. He has been active in local Bar Association public awareness programs such as “Dial-A-Lawyer” and “Ask-A-Lawyer”. Ralph sits on the board of the Stand UP Foundation which provides peer mentoring for teens regarding the challenges of adolescence and he also volunteers his time for Learning Ally which creates audio books for those with sight deficits.

In family law cases, Ralph has learned well what is most important to people facing issues of divorce, custody, and child support. Frequent communication and open access are crucial. Ralph approaches every case the same way: do whatever can be done to find early resolutions. At the same time, always be mindful that some cases go to court, and be prepared if that is necessary.

In estate planning matters, Ralph has learned that some of the decisions his clients need to make are simple. Some can be complex. Ralph enjoys using his decades of experience to make those decisions easier.

Ralph takes pride in being a trusted voice for those facing difficult legal issues and decisions.
