Tyler G. Fender is a civil litigation attorney in the St. Petersburg office of Vernis & Bowling. He is a Colorado native who moved to Florida to attend Florida State University where he received a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in business. He then attended Stetson College of Law during which he was a member of the Tax Law Society and helped found the Business Law Society where he served as Communications Director. Additionally, during his time at Stetson, he interned with Regional Counsel and in-house counsel for an international corporation.

Tyler specializes in insurance defense, adeptly assisting clients in navigating the complexities of legal disputes ranging from personal injury to premises liability. His approach to law is grounded in a commitment to providing expert legal counsel in an effective and efficient manner.

In his free time, Tyler's hobbies include playing pickleball, fishing, and watching movies.
